

Aaron Hill

As a piano artist bred in hip hop, gospel, and jazz, Aaron's influences include a plethora of iconic artists including pianists Keith Jarrett, Robert Glasper, Russel Ferrante and Chick Corea as well as hip hop group The Roots.

Aaron currently tours with his concept "Street Serenades", a pop-up solo piano concert series for communities to enjoy music.

You can also find Aaron appearing with his group, "The Aaron Hill Trio" —a group reminiscent of legendary pianist Keith Jarrett's Standards Trio.
